Explained Marriage Rite.

The ceremony began with the reading of a portion of the Scriptures by Major of a portion of the Scriptures by Major Simonson, who then in a few words explained the marriage rite of the Salvation Army. The contracting parties must promise not only to be faithful to each other through all the ills and joys of life, but to give eternal allegiance to the work of the Salvation Army, and to give their continual effort to each other so to do. This is the main difference between the Salvation Army and other forms of the salvation, and stood beneath the graceful folds of the two flags held by orderlies. Major Summason rad the services, and hold pages and the responses in firm loud tones. The 'I'll' were delivered with such precision and vehemence that

ACADEMY OF MUSIC THURSDAY EVENING

Booker-Powell, Recital---Superb Mason and Hamlin Piano From the Cable Company to Be Used.

No event as important, locally, as the recital of Miss Betty Burwell Booker and Mr. John Powell at the Academy next Thursday night has ever happened in Richmond. Both artists have gathered fame and recognition of their ability and genius.

The Cable Company, through its manager here, Mr. J. G. Corley, has brought about the recital, and, with the departure of Mr. Powell for Vienna to finish his course with his illustrious music master. Leschetizky, and the return of Miss Booker from abroad, after a flattering season in London, Richmonders will have the first opportunity to see her two great artists in recital together as professionals.

To secure a piano with the finest possible tone for a virtuoso the Cable Company's manager has secured from their Mason and Hamlin Branch one of the best concert grands they have in their studios in Boston. This piano, a magnificent instrument, has been secured at considerable cost in the matter of transportation and care, and it will be heard under the magic touch of Powell in a splendid selection of the masters during the recital, as well as under the touch of the accompanist to Miss Booker, whose exquisite voice has already made her a London success among the finest and best of the artists in the concert world.

The Mason and Hamlin factory has reached the highest point of artistic endeavor in the piano which Mr. Powell will play, and the same instrument provided for some of the greatest virtuosi of the world will be given him for the Booker-Powell recital.

Tickets now on sale at The Cable Company.

an audibl titts went round the room. There was no mincing of matter by either of the Tarties. They then classed hands, and the groom placed the wedding ring on the bride's linger, and with bowed heads, the two were made man and wife, and were given a blessing by Major Simonson. A resounding kiss placed on the bride's lips by the groom ended the ceremony, and for a moment the two stood before the world happy in the knowledge that they were husband and wife. The two took their seats, and two little girls, Marion and Florence De Fane, daughters of Adjutant and Mrs. De Fane, came forward and sang the wedding song. The bride herself accompanied them on the randolin, and the groom joined in the chorus of the song. After the services were over, the Army followers adjourned to an adjoining room, where a bounteous wedding feast was spread.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdue will remain in Richmond for the present; but it is expected that they will be removel, in the near future to some other station.
